

Fill in the Missing Words

Can you decide which word rhymes and fits into each of the blank spaces below?

When Boris sailed the seven bees / seas on the pirate ship Black Rose, In sun or storm, he always kept one finger up his . nose / froze Yes, even as he scrubbed the decks, or trimmed the captain's hair,
He still picked great big bogeys out, and flicked them in the . air / fair

But magic things can happen at sea, where winds rage and roar. warm / storm They sailed and sailed for many a day until, at last, they saw / wore A strange, uncharted island, with cliffs all and grey. dim / grim So they came to Bogey Island, and they moored in Bogey Bay.

Illustration © Hannah George 2011 • Text © Paul Bright 2011
from Boris's Big Bogey, published by Little Tiger Press, London HB ISBN 978-1-84895-237-9 • www.littletigerpress.com

